DRAGON BALL Z

Story & Art by

Akira Toriyama

volume 25

鳥　山　　明

As of this writing, I only have three more chapters to do before Dragon Ball Z comes to its conclusion. It looks like it'll end on a high note, thanks to all the fan support. Thank you!! I'm sorry it has to come to an end, but I've wanted to take things easier for a while and draw new manga at a pace I find more comfortable. The series will end with vol. 26 and the last volume will be extra thick—just like this one. Enjoy!!

—Akira Toriyama, 1995

Widely known all over the world for his playful, innovative storytelling and humorous, distinctive art style, Dragon Ball creator Akira Toriyama is also known in his native Japan for the wildly popular Dr. Slump, his previous manga series about the adventures of a mad scientist and his android "daughter." His hit series Dragon Ball ran from 1984 to 1995 in Shueisha's Weekly Shonen Jump magazine. He is also known for his design work on video games such as Dragon Warrior, Chrono Trigger and Tobal No. 1. His recent manga works include Cowa!, Kajika, Sand Land, Neko Majin, and a children's book, Toccio the Angel. He lives with his family in Japan.

DRAGON BALL Z

Vol. 25

DB: 41 of 42

STORY AND ART BY AKIRA TORIYAMA

Boo
A monster so fierce he killed his own master, Bobbidi the Warlock.

Hercule
An ordinary wrestler who became world-famous when he took credit for defeating Cell.

Kaiô-shin
The "Lord of Lords," he is the supreme deity of the Dragon Ball universe. He rescued Gohan and spirited him away to an alien planet for training.

The Former Kaiô-shin
An old god who was the "Lord of Lords" 15 generations ago. Gohan's trainer.

Son Goku was earth's greatest hero, and the Dragon Balls–which can grant any wish–were earth's greatest treasure. After many adventures, Goku finally died saving the world from the monstrous Cell, but he left behind two sons, Gohan and Goten. Then the earth was invaded by a new enemy, Boo the Djinn. While Goku watched helplessly from the afterlife, Boo killed Vegeta and defeated Gohan, leaving two kids–Goten and Trunks–as the strongest heroes on earth! But while the fighters trained, Hercule almost saved the world without lifting a fist...by befriending the childlike Boo and convincing him to stop being evil. But a chance encounter re-activated Boo's evil side, and now Boo has transformed into a new, vicious form!

THE MAIN CHARACTERS

Piccolo
An alien from planet Namek.

Son Goku
Gohan's father, he is one of the last of the alien Saiyans. Currently dead.

Son Gohan
Probably the greatest martial artist on earth, he owes his super strength to the fact that he's a half-human, half-Saiyan.

#18
A powerful and temperamental cyborg.

Vegeta
The prince of the Saiyans, he is Goku's archrival. Currently dead.

Kuririn
Goku's former martial arts classmate. He is married to #18.

Trunks
The half-Saiyan son of Vegeta and Bulma (not pictured).

Son Goten
Goku's second half-Saiyan son (after Gohan).
